2. Personal data are processed for the purpose of handling a complaint submitted to the Controller and providing a response thereto.
3. Personal data are processed on the following legal bases:
   - If you are a party to a contract concluded with the Controller: Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR, i.e., for the performance of the contract, as well as Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR, i.e., for the purposes of the Controller's legitimate interests, which consist of establishing and pursuing legal claims or defending against such claims.
   - If you are a representative of an entity that is a party to a contract concluded with the Controller: Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR, i.e., for the purposes of the Controller's legitimate interests, which consist of: handling a complaint, providing a response thereto, establishing and pursuing legal claims or defending against such claims.
4. The recipients of the personal data will be the Controller's employees and associates, companies providing the Controller with services in the areas of IT, legal consulting, and the archiving or destruction of documentation, as well as other entities that require access to personal data in order to fulfill their obligations toward the Controller. Personal data may also be disclosed to public administration authorities, in accordance with applicable legal provisions.
5. The Controller does not intend to transfer personal data to a third country or an international organization.
6. Personal data will be processed until a response to the complaint has been provided, and subsequently stored until the expiry of the limitation period for claims and the period for defense against potential claims.
7. You have the right to:
   a) Request access to your personal data, as well as the right to have it rectified or erased, to restrict its processing, and to data portability.
   b) In cases where data is processed based on the legitimate interests of the Controller, you have the right to object at any time to the processing of your personal data, on grounds relating to your particular situation.
8. To exercise the rights mentioned above, you may use the contact details provided earlier.
9. If you believe that the processing of your personal data violates the provisions of the GDPR, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.
10. Providing your data is voluntary, but it is necessary for the purpose of processing a submitted complaint.
11. Your personal data will not be used for profiling or for making automated decisions.
